Mr. James L. Hall
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
P.O. Box 4004
Huntsville, Texas 77342

OR2001-1459

Dear Mr. Hall:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 145899.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the “department”) received a written request for records that include certain interview questions for the position of Program Administrator III - Youthful Offender Program. You contend that the interview questions and the preferred and actual answers are excepted from required public disclosure under section 552.122(b) of the Government Code. You also contend that certain information is protected from public disclosure pursuant to section 552.117(3) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.122(b) of the Government Code protects a “test item developed by a . . . governmental body.” Section 552.122(b) is applicable only where the test item constitutes a “standard means by which an individual’s or group’s knowledge or ability in a particular area is evaluated.” Additionally, when answers to test questions might reveal the questions themselves, the answers may be withheld under section 552.122(b). See Open Records Decision No. 626 at 8 (1994). This exception does not apply to evaluations of an employee’s overall job performance or suitability. Open Records Decision No. 626 at 6 (1994). Whether information falls within the section 552.122(b) exception must be determined on a case-by-case basis. Id.

<sup>1</sup>We assume that the department has released the other requested information to the requestor. If it has not, it must do so at this time. See Gov’t Code § 552.302.

After reviewing the information at issue, we agree that the interview questions 1 - 4 constitute a standard means by which an individual's or group's knowledge or ability in a particular area is evaluated and thus may be withheld pursuant to section 552.122(b). Accordingly, the department may withhold the questions and preferred and actual answers for questions 1 - 4 pursuant to section 552.122(b) of the Government Code. On the other hand, we do not believe that question 5 measures an individual's knowledge in a particular area; consequently, this information may be withheld under section 552.122(b).

You state that the records at issue also contain the social security numbers of department employees. Section 552.117(3) of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure, among other things, the social security number of department employees. The department must withhold the social security numbers of current department employees pursuant to section 552.117(3).<sup>2</sup> The remaining information at issue must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at 877/673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

<sup>2</sup>We note, however, that the requestor has a special right of access to his own social security number pursuant to section 552.023 of the Government Code.

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Department of Public Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.--Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the General Services Commission at 512/475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,
